

We hope this list of ten Qur'anic verses were enough to convince you there is good reason to further study Islam and the life of Muhammad and what the religious texts actually say and command.

There have been over 20,000 jihad terror attacks since 9/11. These acts of evil were not done by moderates or "peaceful" individuals.

Where is all the Muslim outrage at this evil?

For those who say all religions have followers who do evil, ask yourself this question instead; how many Christians or Jews or Hindus or Buddhists have blown themselves up since 9/11. How many have committed genocide or infanticide since 9/11? How many have used women and children to protect themselves and their weapons of terror? Can you think of any? Any at all?

Rather than claiming Islamophobia when these facts are presented perhaps Muslims and their organizations could begin marching hand in hand with Jews and Christians condemning these acts of terror and violence and war.

But they aren't. So we must ask why? Why do they spend ALL of their time defending Islam -- rather than condemning evil in the name of Islam?

We can be silent no more!

You don't need to read or understand all 6,000 verses of the Qur'an to know what it is saying.

There you have it, ten reasons ISIS / ISIL / IS or any terrorizing Muslim for that matter is in fact following the Qur'an to a tee and what are claimed to be the divine noble words and commands of Allah.

All this and we didn't even get to Muhammad the narcissist, the pedophile, the murderer, the misogynist, the cult leader, the rampaging, booty stealing, slave selling, madman.

Can you handle the truth that the Quran is filled with violence and evil?
