

level they can impose their will, and they will do so." Raymond Ibrahim calls it the Rule of Numbers.

5. Gain small, incremental, legal concessions from non-Muslim countries.

Recently, the Phoenix airport capitulated to some Islamic women's demands to change the uniform of their employees. The airport's uniform included pants, and the Islamic women said they couldn't wear them and they wanted to wear skirts. So the airport conceded. No big deal, right? Concessions like this are being made constantly, with greater frequency. When all the concessions are added up, it is a big deal. The fact that each concession is so small is one of the reasons people allow it.

These five strategies are already being done right under our noses. The way to stop the slow-encroachment invasion is to educate non-Muslims. Once people can see what political Muslims are doing, they'll vote against these encroachments on our civil rights and they'll vote for representatives who demonstrate they see it too.

The goal is no more concessions to Islam. All religions should be treated equally based on our Constitution, not Sharia Law. The encroachment must be stopped. You can help, you must help. We need others to help. Have conversations with people you know. Talk to them about the evils of Islam, share articles, DVDs, books. We can stop the Islamic invasion; we just have to be smart about it.

Five Ways Devout Muslims Are Tearing Down America

Islam's Stealth Jihad

What is Islam?

Islam is defined by the holy texts of its religion - not by the beliefs, actions or virtues of a Muslim.

Many Americans think we have nothing to worry about from Islam. The U.S. has superior weapons, a superior military, and orthodox Muslims are not going to start an all-out war with the United States. All of this may be true. What we should be more concerned about is perpetual Islamic political encroachment as our nation gives Islam one political concession after another until we have built a trap for ourselves from which we cannot escape.

The Muslism's work has already begun. The Islamic invasion is already underway.

Here's the plan:

1. Suppress criticism of Islam.

At the very least, Muslims can cry, "Racism!" (even though Islam is not a race) and that might silence someone or get them fired. But they can often go much farther. When someone says anything critical of Islam or Muslims, Islamic organizations like Council on American-Islamic Relations (CAIR) sue writers, publishers, television and radio personalities for defamation or libel or discrimination. Since many of these suits are brought by Muslims with endless oil money (and can afford the best lawyers and long legal campaigns) it makes people think twice about speaking openly, even in free countries.

In 1999, CAIR organized a public humiliation campaign demanding an apology against renowned radio personality Paul Harvey for his comments about Islamic terrorism. After 9-11, CAIR filed a $2 million defamation lawsuit against a U.S. Congressman who claimed CAIR was a fund-raising arm for terrorists. A federal appeals court later ruled against CAIR. A later court case — the Holy Land Foundation Trial in 2008 — proved the Congressman right. CAIR also went after radio counselor Dr. Laura Schlessinger — who refused to issue an on-air apology.

The 57 nation Organization of the Islamic Conference is the largest voting block in the United Nations. The OIC's 10 year plan is to make any criticism of religion (namely Islam) a crime under international law. This constitutes a foreign entity imposing Sharia Law as superior to our Constitution.

2. Use deceit to keep non-Muslims confused, at odds with each other, and ineffective.

Islam has a principle called taqiyya, which means "religious deception." Basically it stems from the Islamic concept that Islam is at war with all non-Muslims, and all is fair in love and war. Deceit is used by most military strategists as a legitimate weapon, and it is permissible and even encouraged in the Koran against anyone who is not a Muslim. (Surah 2:225 or Surah 16:106)

3. Convert non-Muslims to Islam.

Through the use of outreach programs, on television, in personal conversation, and in advertising, they present to non-Muslims only a friendly face of Islam, hoping to dupe them into accepting Islam as "peaceful, tolerant and mainstream." They also use the "join with us and end your persecution" approach with minorities. They have a very successful track record of converting criminals in prisons into fanatical Muslims.

4. Increase your numbers inside the non-Muslim country.

Muslim men sometimes have several wives, even here in the U.S. where it is illegal, and they have many children per wife. Muslim men sometimes try to get non-Muslim women to marry them, and insist that they convert first. Often these extra wives get "mothers with dependent children" financial assistance because they register as "unwed." This helps to financially bleed the system. This is another tactic to tear down America economically.

They also increase their numbers by helping more Muslims immigrate to the U.S.. They recognize the power of numbers and they are actively pursuing that course. Serge Trifkovic (author of The Sword and the Prophet) said Muslims have proven throughout history that "once they gain even a small 5% population
