

Early in January, 2015, Boko Haram launched an attack on Baga and 15 surrounding villages, killing 2,000, burning 3,100 structures, and displacing 35,000 people. Their objective was to eliminate all Christians in the region.

► LIBYA – the killing fields for Christians

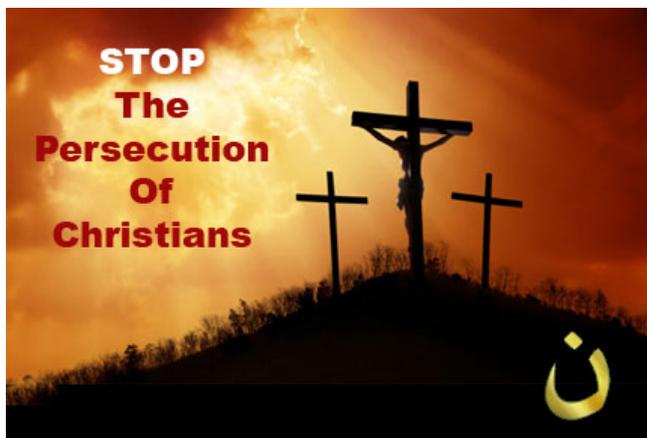

In February, 2015, 21 Coptic Christian migrant workers from Egypt were beheaded on the shore of the Mediterranean near Tripoli by ISIS. A video of these horrific murders, titled “A message signed with blood to the nation of the Cross,” was distributed world-wide.

This atrocity was repeated two months later when a group of 30 Ethiopian Christian migrant workers were lead to their death near the same location. This time the captives were shot and then beheaded – all recorded in a second shocking ISIS video. The message in the video was clear: Christians would not be safe unless they embrace Islam or pay protection money.

Since the fall of Maummar Gaddafi in October, 2011, Libya has been overrun by competing armed militias, many of them aligned with ISIS. For Christians, Libya has become the “killing fields” of the 21st Century.

Stop the Worldwide Persecution of Christians

Nun ن the Arabic alphabet “N” in our Roman alphabet is the first letter of the word Nasara (نصارى) -- Nazarenes. Muslims have called Christians this since the beginning of their invasion of the Christian world in the 7th century -- Christians under Muslim rule never called themselves by this pejorative word, since the intent of Muslims was to portray Christians as a contemptible and disobedient sect.

What is Islam?

Islam is defined by the holy texts of its religion - not by the beliefs, actions or virtues of a Muslim.
