

Christianity was founded as a religion about 600 years before Islam, and its sacred text – the Bible – has been widely circulated since the time of Constantine in the Fourth Century. A copy of the Bible, the Codex Sinaiticus, remains one of the principal sources for translators of the Bible. That copy was located at St. Catherine’s Monastery just 612 miles from Mecca at the time of Muhammad.

Most of the Middle East, Egypt, and Anatolia were predominately Christian, as parts of the Holy Roman Empire and its derivatives. Spain and France were also Christian before they were invaded by Muslims in the Seventh Century.

Given these historical realities, it would be natural for Christians to speak out against Islam: 1) to correct the false statements in the Quran about Christianity, 2) to denounce Islam’s own recorded history of armed aggression against peaceful Christian neighbors, 3) to expose the continued hypocritical denial of these historical realities by spokespersons for Islam, and 4) to identify and condemn the ways in which Islamic values are hostile to Christian values.

Christians are taught to love their enemies, to pray for those who persecute them (Matthew 5:44) and to not judge others (Matthew 7:1) . But Jesus warned about False Prophets. He said, “Be on your guard against false prophets, they come to you looking like sheep on the outside, but on the inside they are really like wild wolves. You will know them by what they do. . . Any tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire. So then, you will know false prophets by what they do.” (Matthew 7:15-20) He spoke out against some of the religious clerics of his day who imposed strict religious laws on their followers: “You hypocrites! You sail the seas and cross whole countries to win one convert: and when you succeed, you make him twice as deserving of going to hell as you yourselves are!” (Matthew 23:15) Finally, it should be remembered that Jesus violently threw out the sellers of sacrificial animals who were exploiting the pilgrims right inside the Temple in John 2:13-16. Today the second largest source of revenue for Saudi Arabia is the pilgrim business, drawing 2 to 3 million “hajj” pilgrims a year who pay out about $6,000 each to fulfill one of the ‘pillars’ of Islam.

ISLAM’S HYPOCRITICAL DENIAL OF ANTI - CHRISTIAN ACTIVITIES

Islam claims to be the “Religion of Peace,” but the almost daily news reports prove that is a false statement. The most recent attack by Muslims in the U.S. was the San Bernardino rampage in December, 2015, in which 14 innocent fellow-employees were murdered and 22 injured by devout couple who had recently been married in Saudi Arabia and who pledged their loyalty to the Islamic State. A summary of specific recent Muslim attacks against Christians can be found at: http:// www.thereligionofpeace.com/Pages/ ChristianAttacks.htm

There is, of course, no tally of Christian attacks against Muslims, be- cause such an event is rare and definitely contrary to the teachings of Christianity, as stated above.

It is only proper and responsible for Christians to speak out against the huge disconnect between the apologetic words of Islamic spokespersons and the terrorist activities that make the headlines every day.

SHOULD CHRISTIANS SPEAK OUT AGAINST ISLAM?

What is Islam?

Islam is defined by the holy texts of its religion - not by the beliefs, actions or virtues of a Muslim.

QUR'AN'S FALSE STATEMENTS ABOUT CHRISTIANITY

Most Bible-literate Christians will know that the following statements are not true, but if someone questions the sources that refute these statements, he/she should contact the website listed in this pamphlet:

- ▶ The Bible has been corrupted (Surah 2:79 and 2:91, Surah 5:13 and Bukhari, Vol. 9, Number 461)
- ▶ Mary, the mother of Jesus, was Amram's daughter and Moses' sister (Surahs 3:34 and 66:12)
- ▶ Mary grew up in the Temple under the care of Zacharias (Surah 5:37)
- ▶ Jesus spoke from the cradle (Surah 19:30)
- ▶ Jesus was not the Son of God (Surah 19:36)
- ▶ Jesus denied he was the Son of God (Surah 5:116)
- ▶ The Trinity consists of Jesus, God, and Mary (Surah 4:171 and 5:116)
- ▶ Jesus was not crucified (Surah 4:156-158)
- ▶ The Gospel tells Christians to "kill and be killed" for the sake of God in order to get to Paradise. (Surah 9:111)
- ▶ Muhammad was foretold in the Bible (Surah 7:157)
- ▶ Jews claim that Ezra was the Son of God. (Surah 9:30)

ISLAM'S AGGRESSION AGAINST CHRISTIANS

Muslims often claim that all of their warfare was defensive in nature. The first attack against Christians recorded in Muhammad's biographies was the raid on Christian Byzantine garrison in Tabuk. In 630, Muhammad mustered an army of an estimated 30,000 and marched 265 miles in the hottest month of the year. Muhammad imposed the dhimmi poll tax on the governor. Not only was this an unprovoked attack, but there was no attempt to convert the Christians to Islam. The sole objective was extracting booty. (Al Tabari's History, Volume IX, pages 47-62).

After Muhammad died, his followers launched a continuous quest for land and booty across the Middle East until they were finally stopped at the Battle of Tours, France, in 732. All of these territories were Christian. Spain remained under Muslim control for 781 years until 1492.

Today, Christians are persecuted wherever Islam is dominant in Pakistan, in Nigeria, in Lebanon, and in Egypt. All told, some 100 million Christians live under persecution by Muslims, Communists and totalitarian governments. These persecuted Christians represent almost 10 percent of the total number of Christians today. "It is in the Muslim world where persecution of Christians is now most widespread, intense, and, ominously, increasing. Extremist Muslims are expanding their presence and sometimes exporting their repression of all other faiths." (Source: "Persecuted – the Global Assault on Christians" by Paul Marshall, Lela Gilbert, and Nina Shea, page 11.)

Who is a Muslim?

A Muslim is one who is obedient to the commands of Allah and examples of Muhammad.

EVIL ISLAMIC TEACHINGS MUST BE CONDEMNED

Christians are taught to be contenders for their Christian faith. "For some godless people have slipped in unnoticed among us, persons who distort the message about the grace of our God in order to excuse their immoral ways, and who reject Jesus Christ, our only Master and Lord. Long ago, the Scriptures predicted the condemnation they have received" (Jude 3-4).

But Christian opposition is not violent or militant: "Then we shall no longer be . . . blown about . . . by the teaching of deceitful men, who lead others into error by the tricks they invent. Instead, by speaking the truth in a spirit of love, we must grow up .. In Christ." (Ephesians 4:14-15)

Here are just a few of the teachings of Islam which are evil and offensive, and which must be vigorously opposed by Christians:

- ▶ Chopping off the hands of petty thieves (Surah 5:38)
- ▶ Beating wives (Surah 4:34)
- ▶ Whipping men and women 100 lashes for adultery (Surah 24:2)
- ▶ Marriage to prepubescent girls (Implied by Surah 65:4)
- ▶ Eye-for-an-eye retaliation (Surah 2:178-80)
- ▶ Death for apostasy or leaving Islam (Bukhari, Vol. 9, Number 57)
- ▶ Thinking of sexual intercourse as plowing a field (Surah 2:223)
- ▶ Sexual slavery (Surah 33:50)
- ▶ Polygamy (Surah 4:2)
- ▶ Making war on non-Muslims (Surah 9:73)
- ▶ Allah using Muslims to enrage the non-Muslims (Surah 48:29)
- ▶ Using terrorism to advance Islam (Surah 8:60)
