

How can the ummah improve their acceptance and social stature in the U.S. and Europe?

- Recognize that in secular societies, religion must not be politicized or imposed on people of other faiths
- Accept that freedom of speech necessarily includes the right to criticize and sometimes offend
- Agree that people can assimilate socially and culturally without abandoning their religion
- Agree that national security requires vigilance and cooperation of all – even against people of one’s own faith and community
- Muslims must back away from elements of Sharia Law that violate the U.S. constitution and state laws – such as domestic violence, vigilantism, religious, racial and sexual discrimination, FGM, child marriage, polygamy, etc.
- Recognize that “legal jihad” increases community divisiveness rather than reduces it
- Muslims must adhere to rules and regulations regarding emigration to Western countries
- Religious leaders who preach hatred and intolerance should be denounced and removed from their positions.

How is the Ummah doing in America?

So how is the Ummah doing in America?

The ummah has suffered some serious set-backs recently:

- Mullah Yasir Qadhi laments that many young Muslims in the U.S. are leaving Islam – see <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=APVCAxF4C8Q>
- Professor Ily as Ba Yunus admits that 75% of converts to Islam leave within three years – see <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=pE7MNqj7uss>
- Twelve states in the U.S. have passed anti-Sharia legislation
- Prominent Muslims are facing criminal complaints for domestic violence and sexual assault, including Keith Ellison (against Karen Monahan - Ellison's former longtime girlfriend) and Tariq Ramadan.

- 449 terrorists have been charged or killed in the U.S. since 9/11/01. Of those

422 were Muslim. (Source: <https://www.newamerica.org/in-depth/terrorism-in-america/who-are-terrorists/>)

- There are new immigration restrictions against people from some Muslim countries
- There is a nation-wide effort to purge school textbooks of false Islamic indoctrination
- The OIC's effort to criminalize defamation of Islam (Resolution 1618) has failed to get support in the United States and Europe
- Anti-immigrant parties are gaining strength in Germany, Italy, Great Britain (i.e., Brexit), the Netherlands, and Denmark
- Between 2001 and 2015, U.S. public hostility towards Islam went from 39% to 61% (Source: <https://www.brookings.edu/blog/markaz/2015/12/09/what-americans-really-think-about-muslims-and-islam/>)
- The new US national security policy names the ideology of “radical Islam” among the terrorist threats facing the US.
- An increasing number of countries have announced their rejection of the UN's Global Compact for Migration which favors Muslim migration. Those countries include the United States, Australia, Austria, the Czech Republic, Croatia, Hungary, Poland, and Singapore

Why has the ummah become the pariahs of the world?

- Divisive insistence on Islamic prerogatives – religion-identifying clothing and grooming, halal food, refusal to follow sanitation procedures, separation of sexes, polygamy, child marriage, FGM, death for apostasy, etc.

- Refusal to combat Islamic terrorism - e.g., CAIR's “Slam the door on the FBI” campaign
- Racist anti-Semitism, including BDS and support for HAMAS terrorism against Israel
- Massive illegal immigration – hijrah – exploiting and abusing normal acceptance of deserving refugees
- Legal Jihad to stifle freedom of speech and impose Islamic prerogatives rather than foster assimilation
- Embracing Sharia Law which discriminates against non-Muslims, women, and Western concepts of justice.
- Insistence that non-Muslims adapt to Islam rather than Muslims adapting to the laws and moral values of their new host country.
